

Make Labor Notes work for you

Get a bundle!

Join the hundreds of unionists and labor activists that get bundles of Labor Notes to pass out to stewards, new members, or co-workers.

Fight isolation—passing out Labor Notes on the job or while organizing allows you to put all the best practices, new organizing methods, and ongoing debates within the labor movement into others' hands.

Support the movement—Labor Notes has been an avenue for labor activists to compare notes across union and geographic lines for more than 30 years. Your bundle subscription will help keep it going!

It's easy—You can order your bundle subscription today by filling out the form below. We'll charge your card or send you an invoice as often as you'd like.
