

Friday April 11 Agenda

10:00 am	Registration Opens
9:00 - 5:00	Railroad Workers United Founding Convention	Royale
10:00 - 5:00	'China Hands' In-Depth Exchange on China	Bugatti
1:00 - 5:00	Pre-conference Meeting on Telecom	Knight
1:00 - 2:45	Workshops A (see page 14)
3:00 - 4:45	Workshops B (see page 15)
5:00 - 6:30	Meetings (see page 15)
5:00 - 6:00	International Guests Orientation (S,M,P)	Regency A
7:00 - 7:30	Music:	Grand Ballroom
	Lynn Marie Smith, the Motown Diva, American Federation of Teachers. Energetic, effervescent, and entertaining, Smith is on a mission to spread the joy and love of life that she feels with audiences everywhere.
7:30 - 9:00	Main Session (S,M)	Grand Ballroom
	"Democracy Is Power"
	Welcome: Maureen Taylor, State Chair, Michigan Welfare Rights Organization Mark Brenner, Labor Notes Robert Whiteside, Freightliner Five, United Auto Workers Local 3520 Dinamichel Avila Gomez, Women's Support Committee, Cananea Mine Workers Union, Mexico Sal Rosselli, President, United Healthcare Workers-West, SEIU Chair: Wendy Thompson, Retired President, United Auto Workers Local 235
9:00	Freightliner Five Solidarity Reception (S)
	(Everyone Welcome) • Cash Bar	Regency A
9:00	International Guests Reception
	(Everyone Welcome) • Cash Bar	Rotunda (16th level)

"Labor Activism in Pictures" in the Grand Ballroom

Experience the stories of the workers who struggle for justice as documented by these fine photographers.

- Jim West is a Detroit-based photographer specializing in labor and social issues. He is a former editor of Labor Notes. See more at www.jimwestphoto.com.
- David Bacon writes stories and takes photographs about workers in California and as far afield as Iraq, Mexico, and the Philippines. His website is dbacon.igc.org.
- Steve Cagan is a Cleveland-based documentary photographer and activist in movements for social change. He worked for many years as an organizer for Jobs with Justice. See more online at www.stevécagan.com.
- Jim Levitt is a machinist for Boeing and member of the IAM. He also handles photo assignments in Seattle for unions and national magazines.
- Rick Reinhard has been called an "artist to the underdog." His work is published by unions, church groups, and social justice organizations. He lives in Washington, D.C.

Language Key

- S: Spanish/English interpretation.
S-E: Session conducted in Spanish, with English interpretation.
M: Mandarin/English interpretation.
P: Portuguese/English interpretation.

