Teamsters on Strike Say “Healthcare Is a Right”

Last May the men and women who make LSK Hand Tools joined the ranks of the millions of working Americans with no health insurance.

It’s the same old story: they worked hard. Played by the rules. And then SK cut their benefits with no warning.

Healthcare coverage was withdrawn unilaterally and without notice, forcing the workers into an unfair labor practice strike.

While Congress debates, these workers are taking action to support healthcare for all. They’re demanding the basic healthcare coverage every American deserves.

“SK didn’t even have the decency to let us know they stopped making payments. We didn’t find out until a doctor told my friend we have no coverage.”

“Healthcare is a right and we need to fight for it from the floor of Congress to the streets of Chicago.”

— David Biedrzycki, Striking Teamster at SK Hand Tools
