

Labor and Community in Times of Crisis

2011 Labor Notes Troublemakers School

Corporate America has created the worst crisis for workers and communities in decades, and we're paying the price for their greed. How do we unite and fight for a better future? Come share ideas and strategies with fellow unionists, activists, and community members

Workshops and Panels will include:

- The Economic Crisis and San Diego Workers
- Women & Labor
- Student Activism
- Community/Labor Alliances
- Immigrant Labor Rights
- Fighting Back against Wal-Mart & the Big Box Agenda
- The Crisis in the Public Sector
- Progressive Tax Reform
- Community-based Organizing & Social Movement Unionism
- Education "Reform" & the Assault on Democracy
- Globalization Next Door: Tijuana's Maquiladora Workers
- Worker Centers & Organizing the Unorganized
- And more...

FRIDAY, MARCH 4th

Registration at 9 AM (continues all day)
Panels and workshops beginning at 10 AM, until 7 PM
Lunch included. Reception in the evening.

at San Diego City College, 1313 Park Blvd, San Diego, CA, B103

For more information contact: Jim Miller at miller229@earthlink.net or (619) 640-1155.

Register Today: 2011 San Diego Troublemakers' School Registration

Name _____ Union/Organization/Individual _____

Phone & Email _____

Address _____

Registration includes lunch. Send this form and $10 to: AFT Guild, 3737 Camino Del Rio South, Suite 410, San Diego, CA 92108. Make checks payable to AFT Guild. Students and unemployed workers FREE. For $35 get registration and a one-year subscription to Labor Notes! See www.labornotes.org.