Morning Workshops, 10:00-11:45

1. Beating Apathy (Room 6)

Are you beating your head against the wall trying to get other workers involved? This workshop is for you. Hear success stories from those who've turned their workplaces around and turned apathy into action. Learn practical organizing tools for engaging your co-workers, taking action, and getting results.

Barbara Madeloni, Labor Notes
Asia Johnson, USW Local 1999-15

2. Campaigns that Win (Room 8)

Hear from union activists who have taken on - and won - fights, while also building the power of their unions.

Brittany Carloni, Indianapolis NewsGuild
Dustin Roach, Teamsters 135
Nicole Faine Mundy, Kokomo Teachers

3. Contract Enforcement Toolkit (Room 10)

This workshop will explore rights and tools that stewards and rank-and-file union members have, and how you can use them to investigate grievances, make information requests, and defend members during interviews and hearings.

Joe DeManuelle-Hall, Labor Notes

4. Regional UPS Teamsters United Workshop (Main Hall)

This workshop is intended for UPS workers.

Learn the lessons from successful contract campaigns, including the 1997 UPS strike. Talk about the contract changes you want our union to fight for in 2023. Share strategies for uniting members at UPS to win a good contract. Find out how you can be involved in the UPS Teamsters United contract campaign.

Afternoon Workshops, 1:00-2:45 p.m.

1. Beating Apathy (Main Hall)

Are you beating your head against the wall trying to get other workers involved? This workshop is for you. Hear success stories from those who've turned their workplaces around and turned apathy into action. Learn practical organizing tools for engaging your co-workers, taking action, and getting results.

Paul Prescod, TDU

2. Assembling Your Dream Team (Room 4)

Your workplace may feel like an unorganized mess, but the truth is you're not starting from zero. Learn how to map out the existing networks in your workplace, identify the leaders in those networks, and then knit them together into an organizing committee.

Bryce Green, IGWC-UE

Sam Smucker, IGWC-UE

3. Stewards Workshop: Thinking Like an Organizer (Room 5)

Shop stewards are the face of the union for most members - the people members see day to day, and rely on for everything from basic questions about the job to handling complicated grievances. But stewards are also in a great position to strengthen the union by getting more people involved: by thinking like organizers.

Joe DeManuelle-Hall, Labor Notes

4. Race and Labor (Room 6)

How does racism show up in our workplaces and our unions? How do bosses use shallow definitions of diversity to divide workers? What are some strategies to confront it and build solidarity for a stronger, multiracial labor movement?

Mat Davis, Indiana AFL-CIO

5. Contract Campaign Fundamentals (Room 8)

It takes more than good negotiators at the bargaining table to win a good contract. Members need to be informed and involved to put pressure on the employer. At this workshop we will share strategies on how to unite the membership in a contract campaign and build your union's strength.

Rand Wilson, TDU

Andy Davis, UAW 933

Tim Courtney, Teamsters 135

6. What to Do When Your Union Breaks Your Heart (Room 10)

If you're a union member, unfortunately the chances are good that you've had, or will have, your heart broken at least once by one of your own leaders. In this workshop, we'll talk about how to recommit to your union and change the culture into one where leaders respect and serve the members.

Barbara Madeloni, Labor Notes

7. Pepsi and Coke Contract Workshop (Room TBA)

Discuss the issues we are fighting for and prepare for a campaign to win strong contracts at Pepsi and Coke.
